Description/Agenda (Please include a brief description/agenda for your event)	The BLSA organization plans to have a 1- or 2-day retreat where we organize, classes, seminars, and discussions to help and aid black law students professionally, mentally, and socially. A purpose of a retreat is to rid ourselves of distractions while working on specific goals. During the retreat we would do things such as the following below. • Group sessions where we'd discuss things like resumes, cover letters, applying for internships, and bar prep; • Sessions about practicing in specific fields of law, personal injury, criminal defense, entertainment, general counsel etc.; • We thought about having a photographer there to take headshots for members who were interested; • Networking with FI Bar YLD, Black Alumni, Paul C Perkins; • Roundtable Discussion; • Movie Night Everyone would leave for the evening Saturday and return Sunday for Sunday Brunch followed by possibly networking fellowship with one another. (Or we could leave it as a one-day event)
