Description/Agenda (Please include a brief description/agenda for your event)	The Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division would partner with the University of Miami's Black Law Students Association (BLSA) for the Diversity Initiative Grant. The Black Law Students Association aims to create a welcoming and safe environment for Black law students. In addition, BLSA prioritizes productive conversations regarding social justice in America. BLSA is creating a safe space at UM that will allow Black law students to convene for the purposes of studying, discussing their experiences, and fostering relationships within the Black community. The safe space would have artwork that highlights Black history and promotes diversity and inclusion in the Black community.
