Description/Agenda (Please include a brief description/agenda for your event)	This event will be a way to bring everyone together to listen to attorneys and fellow classmates. We will collaborate with other organizations on campus such as Black Law Student Association, Caribbean Law Student Association, NSU Human Rights Organization, Hispanic Student Bar Association and Jewish Law Student Association. We will start off by having a few attorneys and judges who work in different diverse fields of law such as immigration law, civil rights reform and other diverse fields and they will speak about their experiences in the legal field. Afterwards we will have breakout sessions in small groups for students to be able to interact and hear each other's stories about their experiences and also write letters to local officials about how to be more involved in the community to promote diversity and educate students on ways for how they can be more involved in the community.
Describe How You Will Recognize The Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division for its Support of Your Event:	Just as The Florida Bar YLD celebrates diversity and inclusion as seen through different cultures, Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad College of Law also makes it a goal to be sure to incorporate different cultural and ethnic backgrounds within our campus. We will collaborate with other multicultural organizations on campus to bring everyone together to incorporate equality for all.
