| Description/Agenda (Please include a brief description/agenda for your event)                         | During the first-year orientation, St. Thomas University School of Law will present the students, via Zoom, The Defamation Experience. The Defamation Experience was created and written by award winning playwright Todd Logan and premiered in November 2010. Bar associations, legal groups, and law schools have used The Defamation Experience as a vital tool for diversity programming. The Defamation Experience is a riveting courtroom drama, with a twist—your audience is the jury. The courtroom of The Defamation Experience offers the audience an opportunity to be engaged and moved by theater while coming face-to-face with some of the most pressing issues of our time: race, class, religion, gender, and the law. For a more detailed description of The Defamation Experience, please visit https://thedefamationexperience.com/ . |
| Describe How You Will Recognize The Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division for its Support of Your Event: | Upon introduction of the program, St. Thomas University School of Law will acknowledge and thank the Florida Bar Young Lawyer's Division for your financial support in helping and supporting our law school provide this important and engaging presentation to our incoming class. We will provide a brief overview of the Florida Bar Young Lawyer's Division and will be making appropriate postings on social media regarding the presentation as well as using the grant specific hashtag #YLDIsMe.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
