Description:

The funds will be utilized to bring a professional photographer to take each law student's headshots for the yearbook. This yearbook is a new initiative the Student Bar Association is implementing to increase professionalism by providing students with the opportunity to receive a free headshot. They can use their professional headshots for their LinkedIn accounts and be placed in the yearbook for alumni and current students to view. Professional headshots are sometimes not available to all students, and we want to ensure equal professional opportunity for all students.
