Event
Description:

The Tenth Judicial Circuit Fairness & Diversity Summit will be in its sixth year for 2021. Each year the Summit's attendance has increased, to over 100 attendees at 2019's event. The Polk Association for Women Lawyer's will be a co-host of this year's Summit. The attendees for this Summit will include experienced and young attorneys, government attorneys and private practitioners, as well as county, circuit, and appellate judges. In past years, the speakers included court administration, representatives from the State Attorney and Public Defender's Office, interpreters, and other government officials. The summit usually includes a keynote address. The speakers for 2021 are to be determined.

In addition to the presentations on the day of the Summit, there will also be an evening reception the night before the Summit. At the reception, presenters and attendees will have an opportunity to interact and network with each other in a more relaxed setting.

PAWL has multiple members on the Fairness & Diversity committee and looks forward to providing both planning and financial support for this year's Summit. This grant from the Florida Bar Young Lawyer's Division will enable PAWL's continued contributions to this collaborative event and will help to ensure our success in educating about and promoting diversity, inclusion, and equality.
