Event Description:

In an effort to continue our advocacy for and interaction with our community as a whole, The Polk Association for Women Lawyers would like to host a school supply drive to benefit underserved children within our community. Specifically, we would like to assemble and distribute school supply bags to children within our migrant community in Polk County, Florida. We will be teaming up with a local non-profit, Called to Serve Farmworkers, who consistently provides resources for those in this underserved community. Our goal would be to assemble 250 bags with as many supplies as we can collect through a local donation drive and in turn give those away to children in need prior to the start of the 2021-2022 school year.
