voluntary bar association that provides for the professional advancement of Hispanics within the legal community, seeks to promote Hispanic diversity within the Palm Beach County judiciary and provides meaningful pro bono services to the Hispanic communities within Palm Beach County. We are seeking The Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division 2020 Inclusion & Equality Grant #YLDIsMe to host a panel of female Hispanic/Latino judges to promote and discuss their journey on becoming a Judge. The tentative title for the event will be “Lessons from Minority Women on Rising to the Bench” and we will be inviting one federal, state and immigration judge to speak at our event. The tentative date will be November 20th, 2020, depending on the availability of our panel. The event will run for one (1) hour with time for questions during the last 15 minutes of the event. The event will be streamed via Zoom but an in-person outdoors location is also being considered. The PBHBA moderator will take some of the questions presented by our guest via the chat feature on our Zoom account. The funds will be used to pay for panel travel expenses (if a live event is scheduled), payment for Visual Evidence to record the event and provide copies for distribution to other voluntary associations, any incidental location expenses and advertising expenses.
