Description:

GOAABA will (co) host weekly (virtual) events which will coincide with either health and wellness and/or Asian Pacific American Heritage Month. The events may include but are not limited to: meditation, Bonsai Crafting, Cooking, Trial Reenactment attendance, and discussion, Fireside chat with Asian Pacific American Author(s), Zen Tea Demonstrations, and Hawaiian leis crafting. We will challenge the mentors and mentees to attend these events. Each attendance will earn certain points. We understand that they may not be able to attend all the events. Therefore, we will also challenge them to check in with each other weekly. Again, this will help them earn points. One person, either mentor or the mentee will be responsible for reporting their attendance and points earned. We will try to cross-reference that with our records, however, it is likely we will have to rely on the honor system. The mentor and mentee group with the most points will win a prize of either 1st place, 2nd place, or 3rd place. Additionally, there will be a kindness component to the events. We will challenge the mentors/mentees to write a note to one another to encourage each other throughout the weeks.

Prizes: (Tentatively) In partnership with the local community, the first prize winners will receive a free axe throwing session, a coffee gift card, and a gift card to a local restaurant. The second prize winners will receive a gift card to a local restaurant. The third prize winners will receive a coffee gift card. With these prizes, we hope the mentor and mentees will continue their mentorship even after this event.
