Event
Description:

Every year in January, the Broward County Women Lawyers' Association holds a panel discussion on Human Trafficking with different key players locally and throughout the state. The event has been moderated by the Honorable Stacy Ross for the last few years. Judge Ross created Girls' Court in Broward County to help redirect and rehabilitate girls in the system, many of whom have been victims of human trafficking. Judge Ross has

Will alcohol
be served at the event?:

No

Will any monies
received from the YLD be used to purchase
alcohol,
travel
expenses, or attorney
house?:

No

How will the YLD funds
be utilized?:

YLD funds will be utilized to purchase underwear, bras, sweatpants and long-sleeve T-shirts for victims of rape/human trafficking. Judge Ross was advised that victims are sent to the Nancy J. Cotterman Center for testing following a sexual assault and counseling and are often in need of clean undergarments and loose-fitting, comfortable clothing.

How does your event fit into the parameters of the Grant?:

We will be educating young lawyers about these very important topics while providing a service component for the benefit of the sexual assault/human trafficking victims and at the same time raising awareness about how to help victims/survivors.

Will your event benefit any other groups?:

Yes, the Nancy J. Cotterman Center, other non-profit and advocacy groups in the human trafficking space, assistant state attorneys (many of whom are young lawyers), the judiciary, the Broward Sheriff's Office and even the FBI, who have presented at our human trafficking luncheons in the past.

In which Judicial Circuit will your event occur?:

17th Circuit

In which County will your event occur?:

Broward

Will your event be held via Zoom (or other online web platform), in-person, or a combination of the two?:

Combination of the two

Proposed date of event (must be within one year from application deadline):

12022

Describe how you will recognize The Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division for its support of your event.:

Facebook, Instagram, website thank you and hashtag. Email recognition in newsletter and advertising for event and at the event. We will also ask the Nancy J. Cotterman Center to recognize the YLD.
