Description:

To celebrate Women's History Month, the Caribbean Bar Association will host a panel discussion on the role women have played in diversifying the bench. We don't want to take for granted the diversity we are experiencing on the bench in South Florida. To keep the momentum going, we want to plant seeds of aspiration in the minds of young lawyers and law students. To maintain diversity we will need to produce a steady stream of qualified women who will remain in the profession long enough to ascend to the bench. CBA would assemble a diverse panel, based primarily on their unique pathways to the bench, experience, and background. The in-person event would commence with networking followed by the panel discussion. The discussion could last no more than 1 hour and fifteen minutes inclusive of questions and answers from the audience.
