Event
Description:

Coffee at the Courthouse is an one hour event held to allow local lawyers a chance to network with local judges over a continental breakfast. Some of the breakfasts have a set speaker and we ask participants to come with questions prepared. Other events are more fluid to allow for ample time for networking with the judiciary. We host three of these events each year: one with county judges, one with circuit judges and one with federal judges.

Will alcohol
be served at the event?:

No

Will any monies
received from the YLD be used to purchase
alcohol,
travel

house?:

No

How will the YLD funds
be utilized?:

YLD funds will be used to purchase breakfast items to include, but not limited to the following: coffee, water, juice, bagels, donuts, fruit, plates and plasticware.

How does your event fit into the parameters of the Grant?:

As required by the Grant, Coffee at the Courthouse is centered on allowing lawyers a chance to interact with our local judiciary in the hopes that they are able to find mentors, learn practice tips and build a general rapport with our local judiciary.

you will recognize The Florida Bar
Young
Lawyers Division for its support of your event.:

The Jacksonville Bar Association Young Lawyers Section (“YLS”) is a proud affiliate of The Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division (“YLD”) and currently has members on both the YLS and YLD boards. If the YLS is awarded the #YourYLD Grant, the YLS will promote this event using the current YLD hashtag #YourYLD to help recognize the YLD’s contribution to the event.
