Event Description:

PAWL will be hosting its Fourth Annual Women's History Luncheon. In the past, we have used the luncheon to honor women leaders in our community and their accomplishments. The event usually features a speaker. Last year, our speaker discussed the role of pandemics on the women's movement, including anticipated effects of COVID on women in the workplace. In 2019, Jennifer Canady presented on the Women's Suffrage Movement. This year, we hope to feature Women in the Judiciary through a panel discussion. The luncheon also features PAWL's Judicial Award. In 2020, the award was given to the Honorable Ellen Masters, the 10th Circuit's first female chief judge. We hope to host the luncheon in person at the historic courthouse. Proposed date - February, 2022.
