Event
Description:

The event will be held one morning during law week at the Lee County Justice from approximately 7:00 am to 9:00 am. The event will have coffee and breakfast items, such as danish, bagels and fruit. We will invite Judges, from both circuit and county court, and Magistrates as well as their judicial assistants and other members of the legal community such as the Clerk of Courts and court administration. The purpose of the event is to informally bring together young lawyers and the court for both sides to foster a relationship with the intent on maintaining a strong legal community. Our goal is to provide attendees with the chance to learn from and take away important information for best practices and professionalism so they may develop a strong legal career and reputation.

The funds will be utilized to purchase the coffee and breakfast items for attendees to enjoy. As well as to purchase some bags so that we may provide handouts with important court information to attendees. We will produce handouts and different materials with important court information, including tips and advice from the judiciary.

The event's purpose is to bring together young lawyers and the judiciary in a more informal setting.

How does your event fit into the parameters of the Grant?:	This event will allow both the judiciary and young lawyers to get to know each other better and foster a relationship. In bringing together young lawyers and members of the judiciary, the goal is lay the foundation for best practices and professionalism from the beginning of young lawyers careers by hearing firsthand from those who have been where they are and who now see it from the other side of the bench.
Will your event benefit any other groups?:	The event will benefit other groups indirectly by providing young attorneys with the opportunity to meet with the judiciary and other prominent members of the legal community. This unique opportunity to get to talk to members of the judiciary over a cup of coffee will young lawyers to gain insight into the judiciary. The attendees can ask questions and learn tips and practical advice for when they appear in court.
