Event Description:

At the “Afternoon with the ALJs” event, local attorneys and law students will be invited to join Administrative Law Judges for an afternoon at the Division of Administrative Hearings in Tallahassee. The afternoon will begin with refreshments as attendees are invited to mingle and network with each other and the judges. The ALJs will then host interactive sessions designed to educate participants regarding the cases heard by ALJs, foster professionalism, and encourage best practices for administrative hearings, such as ALJ jeopardy, ALJ speed dating, and mock hearings. At the conclusion of the event, the ALJs will host a Q&A session, then attendees and ALJs will be invited to a nearby restaurant for informal networking.
