Event
Description:

APABA South Florida will work with the City of Miami Parks and Recreation Department to coordinate a beach clean-up day at Virginia Key Beach Park. Clean-up could involve clearing the beach of trash, gardening work along the trails, or helping with other beautification efforts based on the park's current needs.

Will alcohol
be served at the event?:

No

Will any monies
received from the YLD be used to purchase
alcohol, travel expenses, or

house?:

No

How will the YLD funds be utilized?:

Funds will be used to purchase event t-shirts for participants, to provide protective supplies (sunscreen, bug spray, first aid kit), and to provide a picnic lunch to enjoy on the beach after volunteering.

How does your event fit into the parameters of the Grant?:

Beach clean-up provides a way for young lawyers in APABA to connect and bond by spending time giving back to the community. Virginia Key Beach is an important and historic beach in Miami-Dade County, and its beautification and preservation represent a service to the community at large.

Will your event benefit
any other
groups?:

The event will benefit the City of Miami, the park, and the general public.
