Event Description:

This will be an educational event wherein the Gwen S. Cherry Black Women Lawyers Association will discuss career paths and goal setting for students at C.O.P.E. Center North. C.O.P.E. Center North gives young parents and their children the opportunity to enroll in school at no cost. While parents are studying, their babies are being cared for in the school's nursery. This gives the teen parents an opportunity to feel comfortable, be responsible caring parents, while simultaneously getting assistance to continue working towards their academic and post-secondary goals, by meeting the Miami-Dade County Schools curriculum. Gwen S. Cherry Black Women Lawyers Association will also provide lunch and supplies for the C.O.P.E Center North students. Our goal is to educate, enrich, empower, and enhance the students. This will be accomplished through this community service initiative.
