Event Description:

The event will be held on Friday in July. We are going to host a holidays in July party that raises supplies/money and awareness for service animals. The event will be an opportunity to education the community on what is a service animal (versus and emotional support animal) and to gather supplies such as leashes, bowls, etc. for service animals. Service animals can cost upwards of $25,000 or more to train and then after there is the continued care and necessities needed so having a service dog can be very expensive to those in the community most in need. The event is going to be held at one of our local breweries so we can have some service dogs present with their trainers, as well as to allow attendees to bring their dogs. It is going to be a fun, light hearted summer event that brings Christmas themed cheer to an important cause. Any attendee who brings supplies will be entered into a raffle for a few prizes.
