Event
Description:

This year, and in the following years, we will be starting an annual Thanksgiving food drive. The goal of the event will be to help spread holiday cheer and allow our lawyers to volunteer with those less fortunate in the community. We will be accepting donations from our organization, our jobs, and from our peers to raise enough money to feed hungry and less fortunate individuals in our community. We will also be teaming up with a local food kitchen who prepares, cooks, and provides Thanksgiving meals in order to help support that local food kitchen.

Our hope is to provide a outlet for our Young Lawyers Section to give back to the community and spend time with the people who need our help in our community during the holiday season.

We will be using any proceeds from the grant and the donations of our members to purchase food in bulk from a local food distributor. We will then pick up the food, deliver the food to a local food kitchen and help cook, and then help hand it out around the Thanksgiving Holiday.

of the Florida Bar supported the event with the grant. We will also create an event page and promo flyer recognizing the event and asking for donations. Finally, we will take pictures at our pick up and drop off days where we pick up all the food bought with donations from our members, and when the food is being given to those less fortunate.
