Description/Agenda (Please include a brief description/agenda for your event)	This diversity and inclusion grant would provide first, second, and third year law students the opportunity to come together and watch a comedy show. The award-winning stand up comedian for this show, Liz Glazer, is a lesbian, a rabbi's wife, and a former lawyer and law professor. Her material draws from these diverse life experiences. The hour-long event will take place over Zoom. Miami Law has previously hosted comedy events for its students through funding provided by the Florida Bar YLD. These events have been extremely successful and popular among our students, and so we are eager to provide our students with this event again. The Liz Glazer Comedy Show will allow students of various backgrounds to come together and listen to a comedy show that touches on diversity, inclusion, and equality. The comedian's diverse background and her experience will allow her to connect with students on what students are now facing or will face in their legal career (e.g., law student, law review, firm job). We plan to partner with other student organizations that represent minority groups (Cardozo Jewish Legal Society, Black Law Students Association, Hispanic Law Students Association). It will be a great way to bring people together while still discussing the very important topic of diversity and equality.
Describe How You Will Recognize The Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division for its Support of Your Event:	All of the flyers and marketing materials for the event will have the Florida Bar YLD named and the appropriate hashtag. All social media postings will tag the Florida Bar YLD and will include the hashtags in the post.
