Event(s) Description:

We will be hosting a panel with Latina judges, lawyers, court reporters, and mental health professionals that will discuss the importance of being a Latina in the legal field, where Hispanic females are considered to be a minority and make up a very small percentage in the workforce. The panelists will discuss how professionalism impacts their careers, so the audience is able to understand that professionalism is an important aspect in any path of the legal profession.

Will alcohol be served at the event?:

No

Will any monies received from the YLD be used to purchase alcohol, travel

No

How will the YLD funds be utilized?:

We will be utilizing the funds for food, decorations, and gifts for the panelists.

How does your event(s) fit into the parameters of the Professionalism Grant?:

This panel will fit within the parameters of professionalism because we will have Latinas, from different professions, talk about their experiences and how professionalism impacts their careers each day, as well as give experiences or advice that they may offer to the audience. For example, judges, attorneys, court reporters, and mental health professionals will come to our event to discuss professionalism in their daily routine or how it impacts their job as a whole.

Will your event(s) benefit any other groups?:

Hispanic American Law Student Association (HALSA)

Will your event(s) be held via Zoom (or other online web platform), in-person, or a combination of the two?:

In-Person

Proposed date of event (must be held within the 2021-22 school year):

Nov 05, 2021

Describe how you will recognize The Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division for its support of your event:

Other: We will recognize the Florida Bar's YLD division by posting this information on social media, handing out flyers all over campus, and sending out mass emails to the students and faculty. We will ensure that the YLD is recognized in each advertisement of the event.
