Event(s)
Description:

We will host a professionalism series where students will receive tips on various professionalism topics, like: dinner/lunch, interviewing skills, elevator speech, mentoring and general courtroom etiquette. They will learn more than mere dos and don'ts, they will engage in conversation about meeting a lawyer or a judge for the first time and how to carry a conversation forward when it gets awkward. Additionally, students will discuss how to properly use forks and knives at a lunch interview, etc. The conversation will be fluid and although there will be a set agenda, the conversation will be led by a moderator and attorney, judges will serve as discussion leaders. We will have the event online via zoom to encourage attendance from alumni, current students, lawyers and judges throughout our area.
