Description:

This professionalism grant would provide first, second, and third year law students the opportunity to obtain professional headshots. We will have eight 2-hour periods of professional photography available. Over 190 students will be able to have their headshot taken. The headshots will be taken on the University of Miami's campus and students will have the opportunity to schedule their appointment. Miami Law has previously hosted headshot events for its students through funding provided by the Florida Bar YLD. These events have been extremely successful and popular among our students, and so we are eager to provide out students with this event again.
